Timeline: History of Saint James church

- Construction of the Gothic abbaye: Start again after a pause of 95 years in 1513.
- Stained glasses of the choir are placed in 1524.
- Consecration of the new Church in 1552.
- Construction of the Renaissance gate in 1558.
- Construction of the organ in 1600.
- Collapse of the second Romanesque tower in 1652.
- Statues made by Jean Del Cour are put in the nave in 1680.
- Transformation of the choir in 1750.
- First demand of secularization by the monks in 1764.
- Saint James becomes a parish in 1803.
- The monks get the secularization and Saint James becomes a collegiate church in 1785.
- Modern Era: 1453 à 1789
- Contemporary Period: 1789 à 2017
- World War I: 1914 à 1918
- World War II: 1940 à 1945
- Milieu of the Renaissance gate: 1914
- Lubin foundation offers a commemorative plaque for the visit of the pope Jean-Paul II in 1983
- Restauration of the organ in 1998
- Restauration of the Renaissance gate in 2015
- Restoration of the Renaissance gate in 2015
- Millennium of the Church in 2015

Stained glasses are damaged because of the World War II from 1940 à 1945.